1. VENERA CHAIN

1.1 Introducing VENERA CHAIN

VENERA CHAIN is a first layer blockchain network to create smart contracts such as (Ethereum, Solana, Harmony, Kava) and others. It is based on a unique system called DAG (Directed Acyclic Graph) that provides services to blockchain projects in the field of decentralized finance (DeFi) and relies on the Proof of Stake method, by creating an internal digital currency to operate the Venera Chain network and symbolizes the currency as VCH.

The Venera Chain team seeks innovation to solve the problems related to the complex traditional method of validators in the rest of the networks and make them more fluid and interactive to increase the decentralization of the network. Blockchain technology's path to popularization is based on creating a seamless user experience, just as the Internet needs Web 2.0 to engage people with more social, useful, and interoperable functions. With groundbreaking dApp experiences, VCH is preparing to launch Web 3.0 on the VENERA CHAIN network which will become a full-fledged chain in the future.

While the market is still new, the potential of decentralized applications is still mostly unexplored. VENERA CHAIN Emphasizing high throughput and low transaction costs, VCH will help accelerate the adoption of blockchain technology on a larger scale by supporting several innovative projects.

1.2 Purpose of VENERA CHAIN

While providing an opportunity for users to test this technology on the VENERA CHAIN. Our purpose has always been to simplify this technology and make it available to everyone without experience while setting high standards for security, reliability, and guardianship. Our goal is to facilitate the acquisition and staking of VCH within the system, thus giving holders the opportunity to expand their finances. It allows every owner to access their financial freedom quickly and effectively. And reduce the barrier to entry in complex financial systems. VCH operates as a fully decentralized, community-focused digital asset.

VENERA CHAIN recently accelerated this process, by creating an innovative system, and our new VCH token, that transforms investing and restores people's confidence in the investing world of currencies.

VENERA CHAIN is now a decentralized network and is not under the jurisdiction of a single entity, just as anything found on the blockchain.

Because VENERA CHAIN employs Proof of Stake with consensus, it needs delegates and auditors to safeguard the network. The validator will receive a VCH token for each new transaction they verify and upload to the network. On VENERA CHAIN, anyone can register as an auditor and either build their own node or rent a community node.
